PRESIDENT'S PULSE

Wow, can you believe that November is already here? Thanksgiving is two weeks away, and it's only about seven weeks to Christmas! Where has this year gone?

We still have two meetings left, and I hope to see many of you at those events. Look elsewhere in the newsletter for dates, locations and other details.

I do want to emphasize the December meeting. I believe the date is Saturday, December 8. we will have our Christmas Party and Dirty Santa Gift Exchange that evening. We are invited to participate in the Mansfield Christmas parade December 1. Both events are a lot of fun, so please plan on joining in.

As for me, I want to say "Thank You" to you for the cards, phone calls, texts and good wishes I received from so many of you while I was in the hospital. All of those helped more than you know. As most of you know, I had a stroke about three weeks ago. I'm fortunate that it wasn't much worse than it was. I'm back home from the hospital, and am going to out-patient therapy. The damage was on my right side. I still have some minor speech issues, and some fairly significant problems with my right hand, but have no reason to believe that I cannot make a full recovery. The biggest gripe I have right now is that I'm not allowed to drive. That needs to end soon!

Thanks again – Hope to see you later this month,

Steve Dwiggin, president RCC
