PRESIDENT'S PULSE

Hello, everyone, and welcome to March. Spring is almost here, and I for one hope we will all start to see some drier days. I'm tired of the rain.

I want to write a bit about some of the things I see going on in the news. We are currently living in what I see as a golden age for those of us who love cars. Even entry level cars are nicer and far more reliable than they have ever been, and it only gets better from there.

Since we all love performance cars, you have to be amazed at the options we have in front of us. Corvettes with over 700 horsepower from the factory. Super cars that easily top 200 miles an hour. Retro-rods that offer the style and looks of classic machines from the 60's and 70's, but with all of the modern comforts and safety features of new cars.

Still, many major makers are eliminating car models, and coming out with more and more SUV's. I know they are popular (my wife and I own two of them!), but I cannot escape the thought that we are moving back to driving the cousins of the station wagons so many of us grew up with! Who could have predicted this?

What's more, we will be seeing more and more self-driving (autonomous) vehicles in the very near future. Get in, tell it where you want to go, and let it drive you there. What about those of us who actually LIKE to drive? For those of us who love sports cars, the drive is where the fun is! I don't want to be taken out of the equation.

I can only hope that our kids and grandkids will be able to grow up and enjoy the same automotive pleasures we have.

Internal Combustion Forever!

See you at the next meeting - Steve

RCC CLUB MEETING MINUTES, FEBRUARY, Rita Kerr, Secretary
President, Steve Dwiggin brought the meeting to order and asked for volunteers for Vice President. Member Pete Carlton discussed the meeting he attended with the Mustang Club. The club wants to sponsor a multiple club “show and shine” in September. He will get us more information and present it at a later date. Events Coordinator, Jan Marshall, discussed the next cruise on March 23 to Grandma’s House Restaurant in Winslow. She will send out a reminder nearer to time. She also asked members to check the calendar of events in the monthly newsletter for more cruise and event dates for 2019. After the meeting was adjourned Pete Carlton volunteered to be 2019 Vice President. Thanks Pete, you will do a great job.
