PRESIDENT'S PULSE

Welcome to June! Hope your summer is off to a great start!

I have bits and pieces of Corvette news for you this month. The 2023 production year is now underway in Bowling Green. Price increases for this year are pretty low. The 2023 coupe and convertible both have $1,000 increases. That will put the 2023 coupe at $63,295 in LT1 trim, $70,595 in LT2 , and $82,245 in LT3. Convertible prices are $70,795, $77,595, and $82,245 depending on trim levels.

If you watched this year's Indy 500, you saw the new 2023 on track as the pace car. Former Indy car driver and team owner Sarah Fisher driving. Looked great leading the pack to the starting line.

The Museum auto auction at Indy saw a terrific group of Indy pace cars sold at auction. There were a total of 16 cars in the collection and they sold as one single lot for $1,375,000! 2023 C8 ZO6 pricing has still not been released, but is supposed to come out in the near future.

On a less serious note--Did you hear about the new Barbie coming out for Christmas? It's "newly Divorced Barbie", and comes with Ken's Corvette !

On a more serious note, please be thinking about Beth in the next few weeks. She will be having back surgery on June 13th.

See you soon--

Steve Dwiggin, RCC President
